

ETTORE MORONE

PUBLIC NOTARY

After a period of activity as a lawyer and assistant at University of Turin, Ettore Morone specialized in company and commercial law.

He became public notary in 1978 expanding his professional expertise in the other typical fields of the notarial activity.

He has been legal advisor of the most important private and public companies based in Turin and Piedmont.

Since 1981 he is Piedmont and Valle d'Aosta's honorary consul of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and member of the Regency Council of the Central Bank of Italy.

He speaks French and English.